THE TOWER

MOST REVEREND THOMAS A. BOLAND,

Archbishop of Newark

•We, the members of the class of 1953, dedicate this volume of the Tower to our beloved and highly esteemed Archbishop, the Most Reverend Thomas A. Boland, as a fitting welcome from Seton Hall Prep and as a token of our high regard for him and his sacred office.

His Excellency, the former Bishop of Paterson, was named successor to the late Archbishop Thomas Joseph Walsh, who died in June of 1952.

Archbishop Boland was born in Orange, New Jersey. His education began under the Christian Brothers of St. John's School in Orange and the Jesuits at St. Francis Xavier High School in New York, continuing under the Diocesan clergy at Seton Hall University. In 1920 he attended the North American College in Rome. He was ordained in the Eternal City in 1922. After ordination he was assigned to Seton Hall Prep as an instructor. His talents in this field culminated in his appointment as professor at the Immaculate Conception Seminary, newly moved to Darlington.

In 1938 the late Archbishop Walsh named him Chancellor of the Archdiocese of Newark. Several other appointments during this time gave Archbishop Boland experience that will be of invaluable assistance to him in his new duties. Seton Hall University bestowed upon him a Doctorate of Laws in 1940. In the same year he was consecrated at Sacred Heart Cathedral, Newark, as Titular Bishop of Hirena and Auxiliary Bishop of Newark. On the same day he was named Rector of Immaculate Conception Seminary.

His Excellency became Bishop of Paterson in 1947. The growth and prosperity of that See are evidences of his wise administration.

Formal installation of Archbishop Boland as head of the Newark Archdiocese took place in January, 1953, at Sacred Heart Church, Newark. As Archbishop of Newark, His Excellency will have to bear great responsibilities and solve perplexing problems. We pledge him our prayers, our obedience, and our cooperation. Ad multos annos.

President of Seton Hall University

FATHER DUFFY

DURING the twenty-four years of his association with Seton Hall, Father Duffy has labored unceasingly in the interests of the students. He has always been a guiding light to troubled boys who have sought his kind person for advice.

It is difficult to bid farewell to anyone who has been so close to you during your years of development in character and spiritual life. It is even more difficult when that person to whom you are to say goodbye is a man who has endeared himself to thousands of students.

We shall miss you Father Duffy, but we shall never forget you. We pray that God will bless you and grant you many years of happiness and success in your work as pastor of St. Luke's Church.

REVEREND WILLIAM J. DUFFY, A.M., S.T.L.

His first assignment was to Seton Hall Prep, where he served as Head of the Classical Languages Department from 1940 to 1943. In 1943 he joined the Navy, serving as a Marine Corps chaplain in the Pacific area. After three years of service, he returned to Seton Hall Prep and was appointed Assistant Headmaster. He served in this office until 1953, when he was named Headmaster to succeed Reverend William J. Duffy.

We, the Class of 1953, deem it a privilege to welcome Reverend Thomas J. Tuohy as our new Headmaster. We extend our sincere congratulations and pray God that He may bless your administration.

Loyal, Faithful, Alma Mater

KNIGHTS OF SETONIA

WHILE THE CLASS OF 1953 attended Seton Hall, there was one organization above all others that demonstrated Seton Hall's aim to make us good Catholics as well as scholars. This organization was the Knights of Setonia. It offered us an opportunity to hear Mass and to receive Holy Communion weekly. Over the course of four years this organization was a key factor in keeping our school work up to par and above all our moral life wholesome by keeping us near to Our Blessed Lord. It also prepared us to meet life in the troubled world ahead of us.

We leave Seton Hall thanking it not only for the knowledge it gave us through learning but also for the graces and sense of unity that we received through the greatest tradition of them all at Seton Hall, the Knights of Setonia.

Alfonso Janoski Appointed Editor-in-Chief of Tower

The Tower, official yearbook of Seton Hall Prep, is now being compiled. Alfonso Janoski, of the senior class, has been chosen Editor-in-Chief by Mr. Vincent McIntee, the moderator. Peter Gevas has been selected as Business Manager.

The yearbook intends to have many things of interest including club pictures, school organizations, athletic events, social activities, dramatic productions and school publications.

Costs of the publication will be paid for by seniors and underclassmen. However, the chief support to the publication will be provided through advertising.

The business staff has undertaken the responsibility of gaining financial assistance.

The editorial staff has undertaken the job of writing and editing the publications. Among these are included class prophecies, history and last will testament.

Underclassmen may purchase the publication for a fee of three dollars.

Constitution Adopted By Student Council

During a meeting in December, the Student Council decided to draw up a constitution. Several prevailing conditions brought about this idea. A constitution will help further the power of the S. C. This is the first time in the history of the school that such an attempt has been made.

This document is being prepared by six committees with a member of the Senior Board heading each. Brian Torsney is in charge of the Powers and Duties, Ludwig Landgraf has the Purposes, Robert Wussler has the Membership, Joseph Caroselli has the Officers, John Milano has the Meetings and Walter Reilly has the Amendments and Ratification. The constitution will be completed after the exams, however, it is not intended for use until next year.

Any student, who has an idea for the constitution is requested to notify his class president. The constitution is being drawn up by the students, themselves for the general welfare of both administration and the student body.

Exams Scheduled Week of Jan. 23-30

Mr. J. McInerney To Direct Debaters

The Debating Society under the direction of Mr. John MacInerney, held a debate December 18 on the topic, "Should 18 Year Olds be Given the Right to Vote?" The negative side was taken by Michael Wellins P.G., and Jack Meakem 3C, the affirmative by James Donnelly 4C and William Kennelly 4A. The debate was held before the combined Radio club and Debating society. Since the entire audience was made up of teen-agers, the unanimous decision was given to the affirmative side of the question.

This dance is another in the series scheduled by the Social Activities committee for this year. Under the direction of Fr. Tobey, the prepsters will decorate the gym in accordance with the Valentine day festivities. Brian Torsney has been selected chairman of the affair. Tony Colecchio is in charge of the advertising and publicity and Pete Mosca, head of the decorating committee.

Mission Club Activities Making Good Progress

With Rev. Edwin V. Sullivan as moderator, the Mission Club is fulfilling its full schedule for this year.

The major topic of discussion during the last meeting was a field trip to Immaculate Conception seminary at Darlington some time during May. Presently, quantities of postage stamps are being sorted by members of the club for forwarding to missionary groups. The banner which was awarded to Seton Hall prep by the Archdiocese of Newark for 100% enrollment in the Society for the Propagation of the Faith was framed and is now on display above the Mission club bulletin board on the main floor.

Committees Selected

During its meetings, the club has an extensive program. Committees have been established to give reports on various mission activities. Others were made for the purpose of cultivating in the minds of the students the great necessity for helping the missions.

Father Sullivan expressed his thanks to everyone who contributed stamps for the missions.

The show will be a minstrel type revue to be presented in March.

A contest has been planned to find a theme for the minstrel. The plots submitted by the students will be judged by Fr. Thomas Tuohy, Fr. George Clausing, Fr. William Daly, and Mr. Fred Sleckman.

Mr. Sleckman is to direct the show itself with Miss Kay Monahan in charge of choreography. Fr. Daly will be faculty advisor.

In the near future rehearsals will begin. Mr. Sleckman will arrange the rehearsals so that students who live at a distance from school will be rehearsed first. In this way, they will get home at an early hour. The cast will be broken into various groups so that not everyone will have to attend every practice.

Any student who wishes to take part is invited to attend the first rehearsal.

Since the minstrel has met with success in the past this year's show should meet with the same popularity.

Father Keller Attends Historical Convention

Over the Christmas holidays, Rev. William Keller, the Dean of Discipline, attended the annual conventions of the American Catholic Historical association and the American Historical association at the Hotel Mayflower in Washington, D. C. These conventions are gatherings of history teachers and scholars from all over the country.

Father Keller is working for his doctorate in history at the Fordham Graduate School in New York. A thesis which he wrote at the Catholic university, entitled "The Province of New Albion," will soon be published in book form by the U. S. Catholic Historical Society.

ter session of this organization. During the summer meeting at Rutgers university, the five hundred boys representing almost every school in the state were taught how the state government is operated, along with several other activities. At the winter meeting, which lasts only one day, the boys conduct the state government for that day.

Reilly was appointed Commissioner of Institutes and Agencies by the boy governor during the summer session, which extended from June 15 to 22. The winter session took place December 29. Reilly's job placed him in charge of all the prisons, rest homes and connected institutions and activities. This is the largest department in the state government.

Other boys ran the various offices from governor of New Jersey down to Commissioner of Motor Vehicles. A member of the junior class is chosen annually to represent Seton Hall at Boys' State.

ATHLETICS

VARSITY FOOTBALL

THE FIRST TUESDAY of September, 1952, found Head Coach Larry Sartori with over a hundred hopeful boys trying out for the team. Only five were returning lettermen. Faced with molding a fighting unit out of such an inexperienced group, Coach Sartori performed an excellent job. This would not have been possible without the able assistance of Tony Verducci. Mr. Verducci, besides helping Coach Sartori, took over a sensational Junior Varsity team, which rolled through its season undefeated.

This year's captain, Lud Landgraf, who was honored as a member of the Catholic All-State team, played center on offense and line-backer on defense. The offensive guard slots were filled by Mike Sheppard and Rudy Katzenberger, both new at this position. Sheppard's key blocks accounted for many of the team's long gains. The Blue and White had Phil Passalaqua and Henry Burda as offensive tackles. Holding down the end slots were George Knopf, who did not miss a pass thrown to him all season, and Vince Peszynski, both Seniors. Vince was especially noted for his line charging and blocking.

Our defensive line was fairly heavy, averaging almost 190 pounds. In their last year Gene McBride and Ed McCarthy flashed signs of excellence throughout the season as ends. At middle guard, Gabe DiMassi terrorized the enemy quarterback with his aggressiveness. The line backing of Lud Landgraf and Rudy Katzenberger stopped all plays around end with their hard tackles. Don Knopf kept the opposing ball carriers from penetrating the center of the line. A rugged Senior, Mitty Reilly, accounted for much of the success of the team with his "know how." Don Carolan also clogged up many holes that opened in the line. When called upon, Phil Magnotti, Jerry DeLane, Anton Shulski, Bob Sweeny, Pat White, Joe Kaplan, Gil Morin, and George DiNardo gave fine assistance.

The backfield which registered high scores in the course of Setonia's schedule made use of lightning speed and hard driving in every game. Field marshal Bernie Suttake ran the team smoothly and efficiently. His pigskin attributes were the ability to call correct plays and a talented right arm. As a blocking back he was unsurpassed. Gene Langan, another Senior, combined agility and tremendous power to lead the team in scoring touchdowns. Carolan, an elusive fullback, distinguished himself by exceptional line plunges. Connie Egan—the Pirate's sensational Freshman—punted, kicked extra points, and received passes expertly in many of the outstanding plays of the year. When not putting his left-handed passing to use, Pete Mosca starred as a defensive halfback. Norm Peer and Jim Chamberlain displayed their capability for all-around playing.

On September 28 the Blue and White opened its football season with a 14-0 defeat by St. Joseph's of West New York. The next week the Pirates met Red Bank Catholic at Red Bank. Seton Hall took an early lead of 12-0 at the half but through overconfidence narrowly won by a score of 18-12.

In Trenton, Seton Hall engaged its old nemesis, Trenton Catholic. Again the jinx denied victory to the Hall. The Pirates opened the second half with a T.D. and outplayed the Capital City eleven the remainder of the clash. In the last few minutes the team rolled to within inches of the goal, but when the final gun sounded the score was still 6-6.

The Blue and White flashed its true form against Queen of Peace of North Arlington. Langan and Byron each made two touchdowns. The game ended with Seton Hall victorious by a score of 26-7.

Our St. Mary's of Rutherford schedule began with Larry Sartori's charges looking for an easy victory. In the opening play of the game, Vinnie Byron, with a phenomenal burst of speed, broke through the line of scrimmage and outdistanced their secondary to give the Pirates a 6-0 lead. The point was missed, but at that time it seemed unimportant. Seton Hall dominated the play throughout the game but stopped dead within the Eagle's ten yard line. Until the waning minutes of the contest St. Mary's could not penetrate the defensive line of Seton Hall. However, in the last quarter they broke through our defense and knotted the score, 6-6.

In the St. Cecilia game at Englewood the Pirates tasted defeat at the hands of a powerful Irish eleven. Despite the excellent showing of our squad, St. Cecilia trounced Seton Hall by the score 20-7.

The following week the Pony Pirates opposed their traditional rivals, Immaculate Conception. They displayed their reserve strength by crushing Immaculate, 32-0. Although Setonia racked up twenty-six points in the first half, they could only pick up six points in the second. To top off the onesided score, the losers were held to a minus one yard in rushing yardage.

After a week of routine workouts, the Prep faced Pope Pius of Passaic at our field. At the half Seton Hall had amassed a 20-0 lead. The game ended with the Pirates on top, 33-0. The best play of the gridiron test was one in which Bernie Suttake handed off to Gene Langan, who carried the pigskin ninety-five yards for a T.D. Later Don Carolan bulled his way through the entire Pope Pius team for a seventy-one yard touchdown gallop.

After administering two crushing defeats in the last two clashes, Seton Hall overconfidently faced South Side High of Newark on Thanksgiving Day. South Side, having lost last year's Turkey Day classic, really wanted to win. The Pirates tallied first, and Egan added the extra point. At the close of the half the Hall led 7-6. In the second half South Side registered another six marks. With the game almost over, Landgraf caught a bad punt and carried the ball to the ten yard line. In the last play of the year, Langan bucked the line and was apparently on paydirt. Unfortunately, the referee ruled there was no T.D. Bad luck, which had dominated the Prep's plays throughout the game, again seemed to prevent them from scoring. What should have been an easy conquest turned into a heartbreaking finale to an otherwise successful season.

The entire student body extends its congratulations to the Pony Pirates for the fine job they did. Loyalty to their Alma Mater, love of football, and the qualities necessary for teamwork are the attributes of the Prep's 1952 spirited eleven.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

AS THE 1952-53 basketball season opened, Coach Frank Tracey viewed his inexperienced squad with high hopes of repeating last year's conquests. This, however, proved to be a mammoth task in view of the fact that the previous "Pony five" won three championships. This club was undoubtedly the best in the history of the school.

Seniors who composed the first team were veterans, Captain Dick Farrell, Bill Toole, and Bill Hoag. The other two berths were dominated by Seniors George Knopf, John Mulvey, and Bob Capik. Dick Farrell was the only returning letterman whose 6 foot, six inch height made him a potent threat off the backboards. Bill Toole, the flashy playmaker of the squad, dazzled opponents with his passing and deadly outside shots. Bill Hoag, the leading scorer on the team, was the most improved hoopster. These three veteran cagers invariably tallied double figures.

The ball handling of such a dependable player as George Knopf, who displayed remarkable all-around defensive work, is not to be overlooked. Bob Capik and John Mulvey also exhibited notable rebounding and scoring ability. Tom Crann showed court knowledge with his expert ballplaying. Supplementing this fine combination were Sophomores Jim O'Brien, who possesses a deadly set shot, and Ray Durkin, great drive-in man. Juniors Bob Lynch and Jim Liddy seem to be assured of great futures in basketball. Such fine players as Gerry Swanton, Jim Hamell, Ray Corcoran, and Bruce Byrne have proved themselves to be capable reserves throughout the course of the season.

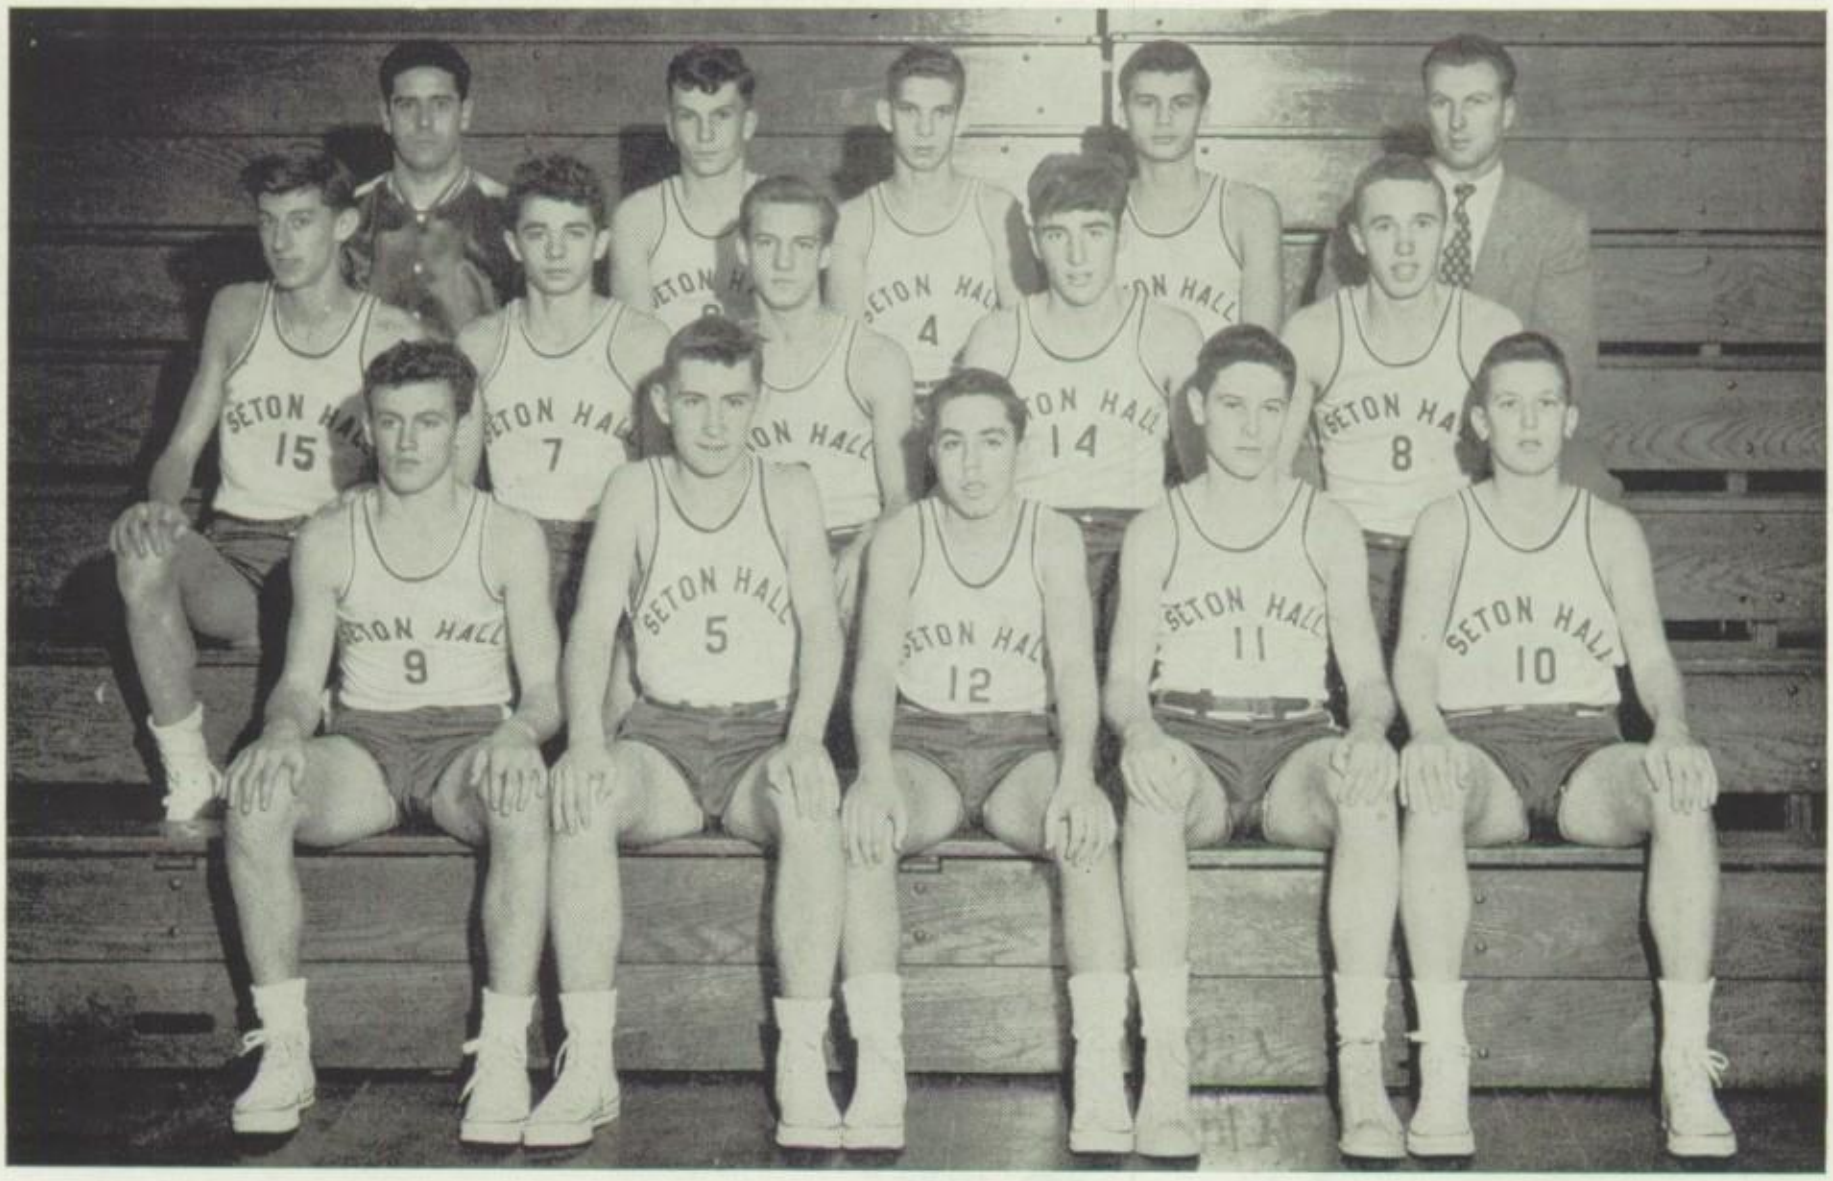
In the opening contest of the year, the Pirates come up against a strong Barringer five. From the very beginning the Hall's accurate shooting and successful rebounding had the visitors dumbfounded. Throughout the entire game the lead see-sawed back and forth until, in the closing seconds, a basket and a foul shot by the Prep clinched a three point victory.

The following game had the South Orange squad opposing a tough St. Mary's club from South Amboy. After the first quarter, it was evident that the Prepsters would have to fight for every point. A tight, tense game followed in which the Blue and White seldom led by more than three or four points at a time. When the final buzzer sounded, a St. Mary's player was fouled, and he received two free throws. The Pirates were leading by one basket. Fortunately, only a single free shot was completed, and the Prep had its second victory of the year.

During the succeeding game, which was with Irvington High School, our quintet failed to break through a tight zone defense of this strong team. In some instances, the Hall showed signs of coming back, but these static spurts of action soon vanished. At the end of the last quarter, a tired Seton Hall team suffered its first setback of the season. The subsequent contests with Central, Our Lady of the Valley, and Emerson High also resulted in losses. However, each game was hard pressed with the Pirates always hustling and upholding the true sportsmanship found at the Prep.

The losing streak of four defeats was finally broken, however, when "Finn" Tracey's boys ventured into Montclair to battle Immaculate Conception. Seton Hall scored 64 points to Immaculate's 50. Coach Tracey was pleased with the excellent performance of his team. He hoped that his fast improving courtsters would initiate a season reminiscent of previous years.

Coach Tracey's profound knowledge of basketball has proved to be the prime factor in our team's ability to score victory after victory. The Hall's precision offensive and strong defensive play have brought about the downfall of its many worthy opponents.



JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

UNDER COACHES Frank Tracey and Tony Verducci the Pony Pirates brought up a very unusual season. Their performance on the court was led by Bruce Byrne, later promoted to a varsity position for his fine play, Mike Fisher, Tom Shannon, Gil Morin, and Richie Ortol.

Filling in the second string were Connie Egan, of varsity football fame, Hugh Dunnion, Frank Bauer, Stan Anisko, and Jack Merkin. John Dowd, Joe Burke, Tom Nalty, and "Blackie" Martinelli furnished unlimited replacement power.

The expert tutelage of Mr. Tracey showed up in the undefeated, sleek shooting, fast moving J.V. team. Their "greenness" was quickly forgotten by such winning scores as Barringer 51-53, Irvington 48-35, Central 44-38, and West Side 59-46. The secret behind this unexpected power was a fast, hard hitting offense and a tight man to man defense.

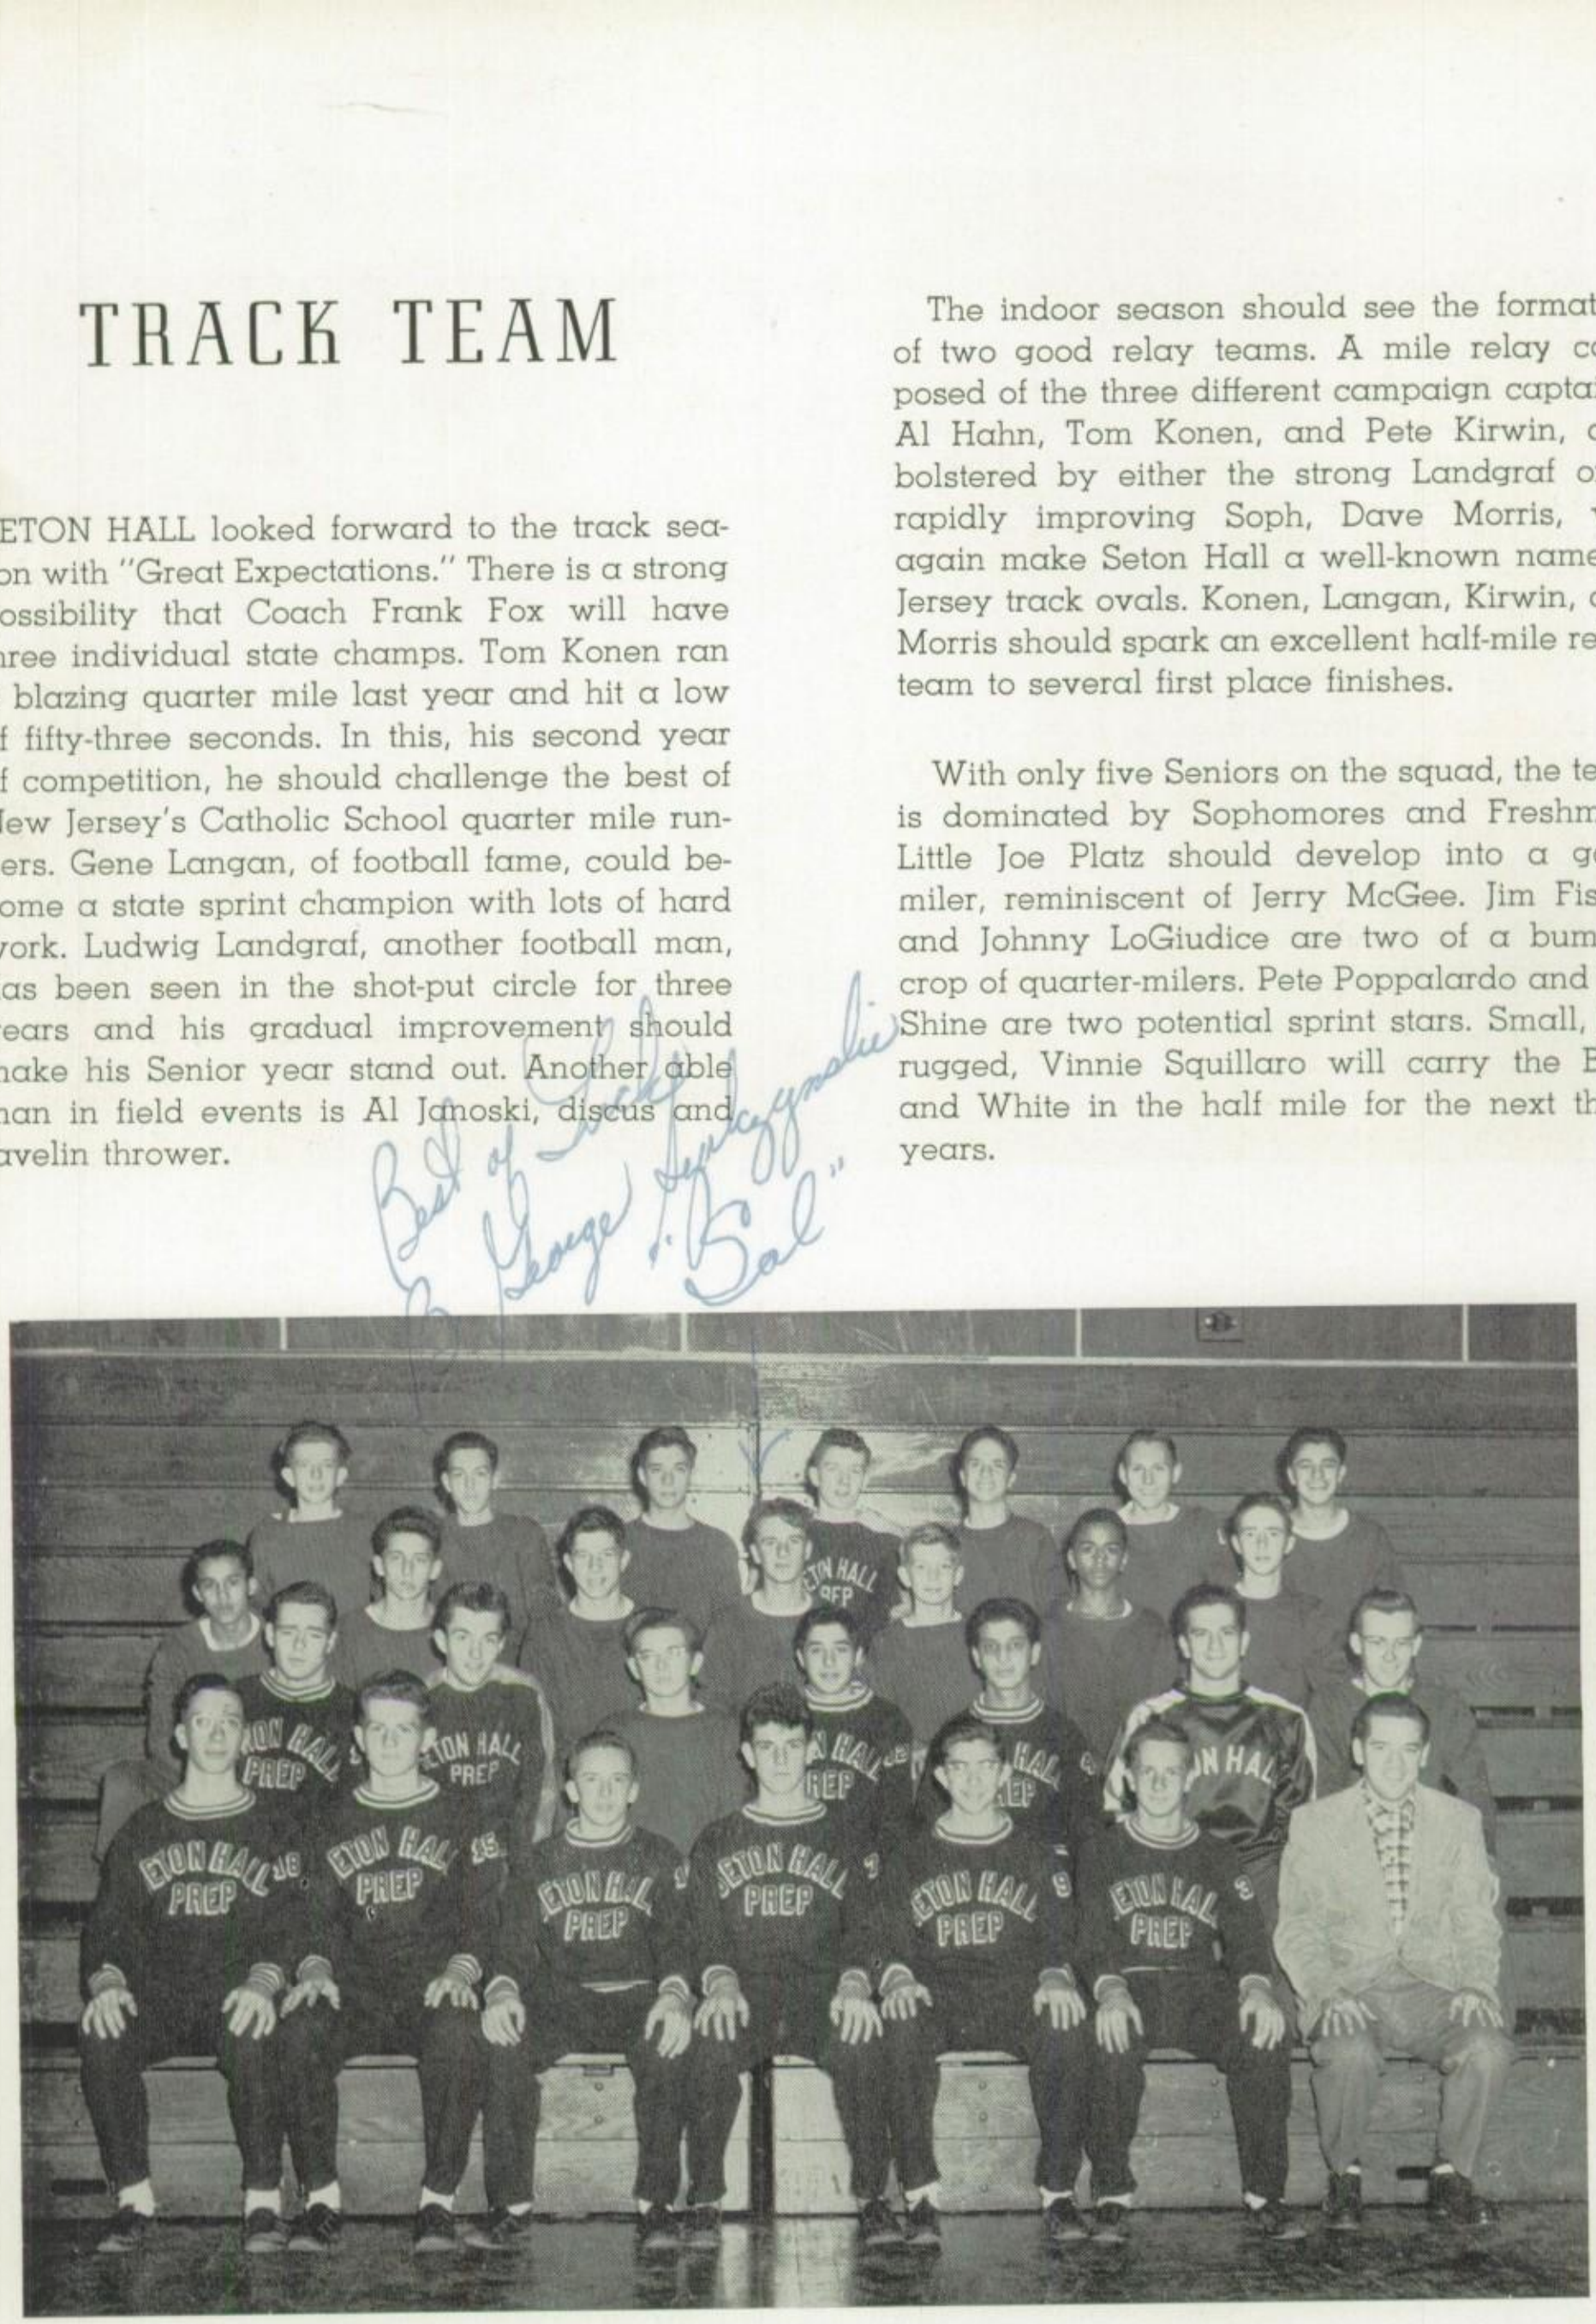
Although the Junior Pirates were defeated in the Essex County J.V. Tournament last year, they are expected to come very close to the top rank in this year's playoff. Coach Tracey has provided for an excellent varsity squad next year.

TRACK TEAM

SETON HALL looked forward to the track season with "Great Expectations." There is a strong possibility that Coach Frank Fox will have three individual state champs. Tom Konen ran a blazing quarter mile last year and hit a low of fifty-three seconds. In this, his second year of competition, he should challenge the best of New Jersey's Catholic School quarter mile runners. Gene Langan, of football fame, could become a state sprint champion with lots of hard work. Ludwig Landgraf, another football man, has been seen in the shot-put circle for three years and his gradual improvement should make his Senior year stand out. Another able man in field events is Al Janoski, discus and javelin thrower.

The indoor season should see the formation of two good relay teams. A mile relay composed of the three different campaign captains, Al Hahn, Tom Konen, and Pete Kirwin, and bolstered by either the strong Landgraf or a rapidly improving Soph, Dave Morris, will again make Seton Hall a well-known name in Jersey track ovals. Konen, Langan, Kirwin, and Morris should spark an excellent half-mile relay team to several first place finishes.

With only five Seniors on the squad, the team is dominated by Sophomores and Freshmen. Little Joe Platz should develop into a good miler, reminiscent of Jerry McGee. Jim Fisher and Johnny LoGiudice are two of a bumper crop of quarter-milers. Pete Poppalardo and Joe Shine are two potential sprint stars. Small, but rugged, Vinnie Squillaro will carry the Blue and White in the half mile for the next three years.



CROSS-COUNTRY TEAM

COACH FRANK FOX faced the cross-country season with a dismal outlook. Only one returning letterman, Captain Al Hahn, and two other Seniors, Tom Konen and Pete Kirwin, brightened the early days of the fall campaign. Molding a fine Junior varsity from last year's Freshman State Champs, Coach Fox soon found his jayvee squad making the long jump from freshman to varsity competition in one quick step. Joe Platz, although the smallest man on the squad, showed the jayvees the way by scoring in every meet he entered.

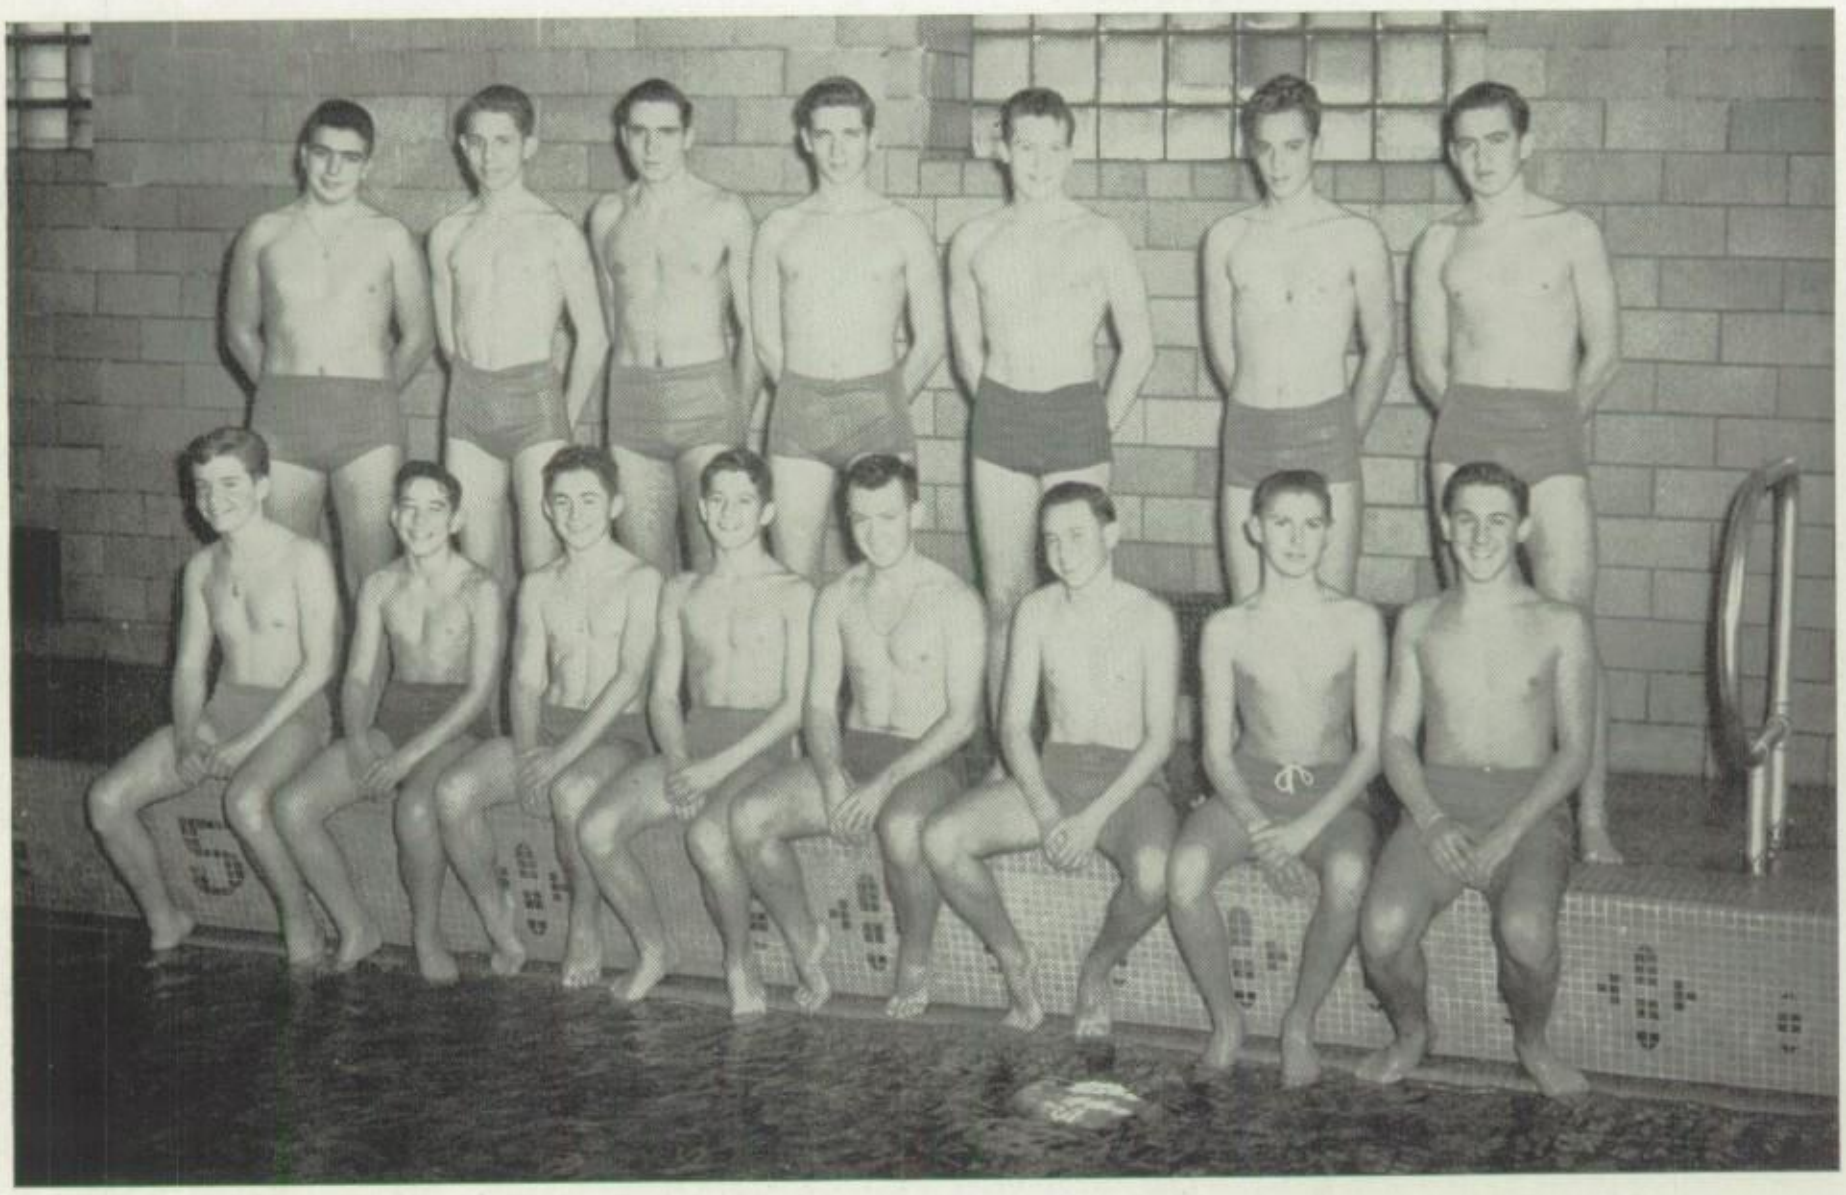
After early season losses to powerful Metuchen and Dover, perennial contenders for the state crown, and St. Benedict's, the school's oldest rival and State Prep School Champion, the young Pirates scored a victory over St. Mary's of South Amboy. Another defeat followed at the hands of St. Michael's of Jersey City, who is Hudson County Champion.

The Sophomores were now carrying their own weight and pushed the Blue and White to a victory over Good Council. The second successive win was over Wallington High.

High positions in the Kearny A.C. Invitational and the Catholic State Championships showed that Frank Fox has developed the young talent at his disposal to a high degree. Next year's team will have six returning lettermen. This season's jayvees went undefeated as the Freshman team dropped only one encounter.

The varsity letter winners for the year of 1952 include: Seniors, Al Hahn, Tom Konen, and Pete Kirwin; Sophomores, Joe Platz, John LoGiudice, Jim Fisher, Pete Poppalardo, Vin Squillaro, and Dave Morris; and the surprise of the year, Freshman Addison Kelly.

SWIMMING TEAM



THE SETONIA "MERMEN" again have a fine and capable squad under the able coaching of "Doc" Ferrinden, who has led the team to the thirty-six out of its last thirty-seven swim meets.

The captain this year is Richie McDonald, whose able breast-work has aided the team for the last three years. He will be called upon to swim the hundred yard breast-stroke and the relay events.

The free-style events are capably handled by English, Mander, Kadvan, and Prince. Bill McKeon and Locke in the hundred yard contest, and Frank Boaté in the two hundred yard free-style should compose a fine all-around team.

Pete McDonald will be swimming the back-stroke events, while John McLaughlin, in his third year of competition, will be swimming the individual medley. New additions to the team are Drubs, Forrester, Lucenberg, Frehan, King, Baceluk, Dallard, and Kennedy.

Jim Donnelly, after three years of varsity competition, will manage the team this year and help "Doc" Ferrinden to coach the team.

Class

OUR FOUR YEAR ASSOCIATION with Seton Hall began on a bright September day in 1949. Our stay at Seton Hall commenced at the opening of the Retreat, the first for the majority of us. Many of us Freshmen escaped initiations and began battling Latin and algebra. Because of the difficulties encountered in past years with Latin, our class was given the dubious honor of sitting through ten periods a week of this subject. We survived the conjugation of "porto," but the square root of "XYZ" created a perplexing situation.

Our entire Freshman class of three hundred students was present when the Middle Atlantic States Committee visited our school. After Seton Hall Prep was given a superior rating, the highest possible, Father Duffy rewarded us with a school holiday.

We soon discovered that there was more to Seton Hall than studies. The first edition of the school paper, "The Pirate," introduced us to the various extracurricular activities which were at our disposal. A remarkable number of our class brought glory to our section by becoming members of Junior-Varsity and Varsity teams. Having lost only one game, the football team completed a highly successful season. The swimming team completed the year undefeated. Our basketball team attained the Catholic title, and the baseball squad was one of the best in the state.

The first social event of our initial year was the Harvest Hop dance. We were informed by the Social Activities Committee that the presence of the Freshman class was requested. Inspired by the words of our elders, we invested a dollar in a ticket. The Varsity Hop and the Pirate Card Party produced favorable returns.

At the start of the second semester, every Freshman considered himself an indispensable part of Seton Hall. How wrong we were! The annual show, which highlighted the school year, was hailed as the "greatest ever."

The Farewell Dance, attended by many members of our class, brought our first year to a close. We now looked forward to a summer of fun and relaxation.

As we entered our Sophomore year at Seton Hall, the only new addition was the Freshman class. They were Lilliputians to us, who had been the smallest in the school only a short time ago. The first great task which confronted us was assisting Caesar in his many wars. We were overcome by our first smell of formaldehyde when we rounded the ever-winding stairs going up to biology lab. This completely ruined our appetites since lunch was usually next on our daily schedule. Besides these added burdens to our already overworked little minds there were some enjoyable parts in the day. History had been replaced by a study period, and the second year algebra book had a helpful set of answers.

The football team had a tough fight on its hands and a lot of green players. They struggled through a pretty lean season. This was forgotten as our basketball team, showing great promise, ended the season by winning both the Varsity and Junior Varsity divisions of the Essex County Tournament. They were the first to register a double win in this competition. The swimming team, under the able guidance of "Doc" Ferrinden, finished an other undefeated season.

The Sophomore class swelled the attendance at the Harvest Hop and the Valentine Dance, and the Pirate Card Party was its usual success.

The peak of the year came at the inauguration of a Driver Education course, with a dual-control car, to teach the mighty Seniors to drive. At first we had high hopes of driving the car, but we were later informed that sometime in our Senior year we'd get to sit behind the wheel.

The Spring show, "Brother Orchid", under the direction of Mr. Warren, went over well with five of the top roles being portrayed by Sophomores. The Senior Farewell Dance and thoughts of summer pleasure closed out an exciting year.

History

The third year loomed in our educational path with the bug-a-boo of geometry's congruencies and the quaint hieroglyphic symbols of chemistry as an obstacle to surmount. However, sociology seemed to soften the temper of these "new on our schedule" subjects. We soon found that we could discuss Walter Kidde Extinguishers, the Pythagorean Theory, and the "why's and wherefore's" of labor unions like a group of veterans.

Naturally, this put us in a complacent mood to take our Driver Education. Thinking back, there was no doubt that the uplifting and heartening inspiration we received from the Retreat and the Papal blessing was more instrumental in facing this, our Junior year, with confidence and determination to succeed.

Most of us became nonplussed when we heard of the leaving of Father Hakim, Father O'Brien, Mr. Martyn, and Mr. Cerbone. But our querulous looks were soon appeased by the appointment of Father Keller, Mr. Rahilly, and Mr. Shear to take their places. Room 7, and T. V.'s "The Web" were synonymously affiliated when Study Hall became a part of Seton Hall's curriculum.

We held our Harvest Hop, the first dance of the year, to welcome the Freshmen into the hallowed halls of Setonia. Needless to say, its success was lauded by all. In fact, it seemed that every affair attempted by us was destined for acclaim as a "hit". The Pirate Card Party, the Varsity Hop, the Valentine Dance—all were great successes.

The impending termination of the first-half of our Junior year was heralded when a General Assembly was called on December 15 just before we left for our Christmas vacation. The holiday spirit was well infused by the presentation of tableaux.

As we returned from our holiday, we met and conquered the midterm exams. The basketball team was enjoying tremendous success and ended its season by winning the Essex County Tournament and the Glen Falls Tournament. We were justly proud of the team and the trophies awarded to the players.

The show this year was under the direction of Mr. Fred Sleckman. This gala affair met with great acclaim and was one of the highlights of our Junior year. The next successful social event was the Prom. Everyone who attended had a most enjoyable evening.

The climax of the second semester came with the election of officers for our Senior year, the final exam, and the Farewell Dance. Once more we anticipated a summer of rest and preparation for our Senior year.

To most people, September is just another month in the year. But to us, September, 1952, marked the height of our high school career, Senior year. What a feeling of accomplishment! The idea, however, is to complete the course successfully, thus meriting the highly-prized diploma. With firm determination, we all made excellent resolutions during the Retreat, which was zealously delivered by Father Cronin Cantlon.

Most of our Senior classes were conducted in the new building. Its greatest asset was its proximity to the cafeteria. This factor need not be explained. Through the efforts of Father Duffy, the regular prep building had undergone a renovation.

Maturity had ushered in its responsibilities, one of which was the rigid Senior schedule. However, we soon realized the value of hard work in our final year and resolved to apply ourselves seriously to our studies.

The Harvest Hop and Varsity Hop carried with them the usual great entertainment famous at all Seton Hall Prep dances. Fall athletics centered around the football team which was highly successful, except for the South Side heartbreaker.

We were prepared to fight on three fronts this year: "Mr. Cosine" in Trig, Will Shakespeare's "Macbeth", and "Mr. Check-Up" in history.

Because of the untiring efforts of Father Duffy and the entire student body, the annual Card Party was especially successful and praiseworthy. The proceeds were used to establish a scholarship fund which is to be known as the Reverend William J. Duffy Scholarship Fund, honoring our Headmaster, who left in our Senior year to assume his new duties as pastor of St. Luke's in Hohokus.

The first term passed swiftly, and we soon reached the half-way mark of our goal. In the second half, Reverend Thomas Tuohy succeeded Father Duffy as Headmaster. We enjoyed a highly entertaining Variety Show, a Seton Hall special, during the third quarter. The show was an immense success, and the audience on both nights of the performance displayed their enthusiasm.

During the last quarter we found ourselves earnestly, almost feverishly, working. Nothing could stop us now. Finally, the long-awaited events of our Senior year arrived, namely, the Prom, the Year Book, and Graduation.

It is with confidence, instilled in us by our four years of training at Seton Hall, that we now go forward to take our places in this world of competition.

CLASS PROPHECY

THE ANONYMOUS INVITATION requesting my presence on a small desolate island off the coast of Maine seemed to be the work of a practical joker. I received this unique letter in my business office in New York City. I promptly dismissed this inane offer by reasoning it to be a nonsensical prank.

However, later in the afternoon, I accepted a mysterious package which was postmarked Portland, Maine. Was this also part of the futile scheme of that mad jokester who had sent that incredulous invitation?

At this time, I must confess that I was delighted at the thought of being the one selected for this unusual, yet humorous, attempt to deceive. Having broken open the seal of the small box, my nervous fingers spilled its contents onto the floor of my office.

I stooped over and picked up—of all things—a black hood which had two circular cutouts for its wearer's eyes. Evidently it was to be worn by me. Why? This question was concisely answered by a note pinned to one of the folds on the sinister hood.

I decided to amuse myself further by reading the note. It directed me to report on this Friday 17, 1971, at three o'clock to Pier 59 in Portland, Maine. I was to wear at said time the black hood and was not to be surprised if others who wore similar hoods were present. A yacht would take us to a privately owned island where we were to be entertained for the weekend. Of course, only those who had invitations were to be accepted. The brief typewritten note concluded that at no time was I to speak to any other member of the hooded league, unless directed to do so.

Here, I would have affirmed my earlier conception that the whole plan was a well formulated hoax if I had not observed a familiar seal in the lower corner of the paper. It was the beloved seal of Seton Hall Preparatory School, my Alma Mater. I was overcome with a wave of nostalgia when I recalled my boyhood years at the Hall. I had made many friends there, but our close bonds of friendship were severed at graduation day many years ago.

Restraining my highly imaginative mind, I refocused my senses upon the crude world of reality. The appearance of the school seal had put a "new light on things." Whoever had proposed my presence on the island was serious. I now desired to replenish a cavity which once contained youthful curiosity by appearing at the dock when scheduled.

Arriving at a few minutes to three, I went to the pier and covered my head with the black hood. At precisely three o'clock a large, magnificent yacht picked up the group and sped toward our island destination. I estimated one hundred and twenty individuals in the entire crowd of which none uttered a word.

The expensive yacht docked off the east shore of the island which, I would say, had a length of two miles. We marched up a long series of steps which began at the foot of the woods. Finally, we reached the top and beheld a huge, majestic mansion which was invisible to one who inspected the island from the sandy shore. This fact was accounted for by the dense foliage of the surrounding trees.

Ushered into a spacious reception hall, we were greeted by a booming voice which came out of a public address system. The unseen person stated that he was our host who financed the expense of our entertainment on the island. He informed us that the voice we heard was a recording of his own and that he also came as a hooded guest, wishing to remain unknown.

The voice then commanded us to remove our masks. Sound of laughter and surprise burst forth from every corner of the room. Here was the Seton Hall Prep graduating class of 1953; every face I saw was that of an old friend. I shook hands until my arm hurt. We revealed to each other our success in the world. Again our gracious host addressed us.

"Welcome, John Helewa, who, as an assistant chemist of the L. Landgraf Chemical Corporation, has made important contributions to the world of science."

Meanwhile, I moved closer to the accumulated listeners. Among them I recognized Ronnie Horan, Paul Fitzpatrick, and Joe LoGiudice, famous interplanetary rocket pilots who left their station on Pluto to attend this surprise class reunion.

The recorded voice continued, "I salute you Setonians who have won universal acclaim in the field of engineering and architecture: Anthony Albright, Robert Capik, Bernard Doneski, and Ronald Witt, who designed and constructed the Intercontinental Bridge, connecting the United States with Eastern Europe. I give special commendation to John Morelli, who supervised this mammoth task. This five thousand mile long structure shall endure for the centuries, perpetuating the name of Seton Hall Prep."

In the background I noticed a small group of men wearing the mark of a Catholic priest—the Roman collar. Reverend Joseph Caroselli greeted me most heartily with a friendly handshake. It seems that he was discussing current religious topics with Reverends Donald Carolan and William Kennelly.

Other former Prepsters were praised by our humble host. "Doctor Alfonso Janoski, I must commend you for your fine work in combating the dreaded 'red-eye' disease prevalent among our colonists on the planet Mars. You, Doctors Peter Gevas and Walter Reilly, have had the distinction of winning the Nobel prize in medicine last year. Francis De Paola and Brian Torsney must also be praised for their spectacular achievements in the field of dentistry."

I sighted an old acquaintance of my school days in the person of George Hurler, prominent New York lawyer. Accompanying him was his capable partner in law, Daniel Rago. I recall their widely publicized case in which they defended the Eugene McBride and Anthony Cocozziello Finance Company, of Wall Street fame, in an enormous suit. To my immediate right was John Kadvan, the restaurant magnate, whose establishments are nationally known. On my immediate left were representatives of our law enforcement agencies—James Ryan of the F.B.I., and State Trooper Francis McCawley. Speaking with them was Robert Wussler, noted auctioneer of New Jersey.

In the midst of the crowd were Setonians who now owned a chain of pharmacies throughout the East. Donald Krachenfels, Charles Turski, Benjamin Kendelski, and Patrick Marucci—all pharmacists—have combined their scientific knowledge into a unit which is assisting the advancement of medical science.

One might have mistaken our reunion for a teachers' convention. Among those who had chosen this profession were Professor of English, Clyde Dewar; Charles Costenbader, French instructor; Donald Butch, Latin teacher; and Professor of Music, William Ulrich. Here also was Edwin Jukniewicz, famous Doctor of Philosophy.

As all good things must end, our week-end holiday was brought to a close by our gracious host. We, having had an unforgettable time, parted from each other on the island. I—nor any of my friends—shall ever again have such a class get-together as that one which was full of mystery, magnificence, and memories. I never did find out the identity of our secretive host.
